1.1. The Offer is an official public offer of the Individual Entrepreneur Pekshev Aleksandr Aleksandrovich (OGRNIP: 319482700001087, INN 482611804466) (hereinafter referred to as the "Licensor"), on the one hand, addressed to an unlimited number of individuals with full legal capacity, including those registered as an individual entrepreneur and/or a payer of professional income tax, as well as legal entities (hereinafter referred to as the "Licensee"), on the other hand, hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Parties", and each individually as a "Party", to conclude a license agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement") on the same terms for all and in electronic form on the terms of the Offer.

1.2. The conclusion of the Agreement occurs at the moment of acceptance by the Site visitor of the terms of the Offer by making an Acceptance, as a result of which the visitor becomes the Licensee, a party to the license agreement concluded with the Licensor. Acceptance is equivalent to the conclusion of the Agreement in simple written form on the terms set out in the Offer, without signing its written copy, which creates mutual rights and obligations for the Parties, for failure to fulfill which the liability established by law occurs.

1.3. The execution of the Acceptance confirms that the Licensee has his own expression of will to conclude the Agreement, has previously familiarized himself with the provisions of the Offer, fully and unconditionally accepts all the conditions contained therein in the form in which they are published on the Site, without signing a written copy of it, understands the legal nature of the Agreement, its content and essential conditions, as well as the legal consequences of the conclusion. If the Licensee does not agree with any of the terms of the Offer, he is obliged to refrain from making the Acceptance and purchasing access to the Program.

1.4. If the Licensee is a person with limited or partial legal capacity, he/she shall not make Acceptance and use the Program independently, otherwise, unless otherwise established, the Licensor assumes that the Acceptance in the interests of such person is made by his/her legal representative, who has sufficient rights and powers to act on his/her behalf and in his/her interests, and has also read, fully and unconditionally agreed with the terms of the Agreement concluded with the Licensor under the terms of the Offer.

1.5. For the purposes of applying and interpreting individual provisions of the Agreement, the Licensor uses the basic terms established below (unless otherwise expressly stated in the Agreement). In the text of the Agreement, these terms may be used in a different case, in the singular or plural, with a lowercase or uppercase letter, or as abbreviations:

1.5.1. "Offer" — an official public offer of the Licensor, which contains all the essential terms of the Agreement, addressed to an unlimited number of individuals with full legal capacity, including those registered as individual entrepreneurs and/or payers of professional income tax, as well as legal entities, for the purpose of concluding a license agreement with them in electronic form and on the same terms for all, previously established.

The software is a set of Plugins connected to the programs of computer-aided design (CAD) complexes, which helps to speed up and automate routine actions performed in CAD programs, as well as cloud services that allow for timely updating of plugins. The program is registered in the Unified Register of Russian Programs for Electronic Computers and Databases by the Federal Service for Intellectual Property (registry entry No. 14177 dated July 11, 2022, certificate of state registration of computer programs No. 2019612239 dated February 13, 2019).

1.5.5. "Plugin" — an autonomous part of the Program, the cost of the license for the right to use which is either included in the license fee or paid separately, depending on the selected Tariff Plan, configuration and package of the Program, which allows the Licensee to use additional, extended, special features of the Program in accordance with the provided list of functions.

1.5.6. "Licensor" — Individual Entrepreneur Pekshev Aleksandr Aleksandrovich (OGRNIP: 319482700001087, INN 482611804466), who is the sole and legal copyright holder of the Program.

1.5.8. "Tariff Plan" — the price of the license indicated on the Site in the "Buy" section, set by the Licensor depending on the key parameters, in accordance with which the Licensee is granted the right to use the Program (depending on the selected configuration and package, the number of connected workstations, as well as the period of use), which is an integral part of the Agreement.

1.5.9. "Order" — a properly executed request from the Licensee using the functionality of the Site to purchase the Program in the selected configuration, and/or Plugins to it. The terms of the Order after its execution and confirmation by the Licensor are an integral part of the Agreement.

1.5.11. "Personal Account" — a special section of the Site that allows the Licensee to place an Order, access technical support, forum, knowledge base, and use other current functionality of the Site.

1.5.12. "Login/Password" — a secret set of characters determined by the Licensee at the time of registration, not subject to disclosure to third parties, entered to complete the Authentication and Authorization procedure. The Licensor has the right to set restrictions on the content of the Login and Password (minimum number of characters, symbols, format, encoding, security).

1.5.13. "Authorization" — granting the Licensee access rights to the Personal Account after completing the Authentication procedure.

1.5.14. "Authentication" — the procedure for verifying the authenticity of authorization data by comparing the Login and Password entered when logging into the Account with the Login and Password saved in the security system when the Licensee registered on the Site.

1.6. The Agreement may contain other terms, the interpretation of which shall take into account the literal meaning of the words and expressions contained therein. In all other cases, the interpretation of terms shall be carried out in accordance with applicable law or business customs.

1.7. The offer to conclude the Agreement may not be withdrawn by the Licensee independently and shall be valid until the date of its withdrawal by the Licensor, subject to the actual availability and operability of the Site, except for cases stipulated by the Agreement and applicable law.

1.8. The Agreement shall be valid from the date of Acceptance until the expiration of the Tariff Plan, unless the access limits provided by it are exhausted earlier. The expiration of the validity period or the exhaustion of the access limits stipulated by the Tariff Plan, in itself, does not entail the termination of the obligations assumed by the Parties and does not release them from liability for breach of obligations. Termination of obligations under the Agreement shall occur solely subject to their proper performance by the Parties.

2. TERMS OF USE OF THE PROGRAM

2.1. In the manner and on the terms stipulated by the Agreement, the Licensor grants the Licensee, on a paid basis, permission to use the Program within the framework of its functional capabilities under the terms of a simple (non-exclusive) license, within the territory of countries around the world, without the right to sublicense it in favor of third parties, and the Licensee undertakes to use the Program within the established limits and in the prescribed manner, and also to pay the Licensor a fee (license) for using the Program under the terms of the Agreement.

2.2. The methods of using the Program permitted to the Licensee apply both to the Program as a whole and to all of its existing Plugins separately, and include: playback, including recording in the memory of a computer device, changing settings within the available functional capabilities, in accordance with the list of data and commands specified on the Site, in order to obtain a certain result and the functioning of the Program on a computer device and/or under the control of other software.

2.3. The right to use and access to the Program is granted to the Licensee remotely, according to the SaaS (Software as a Service) model, for independent use for a period limited by the Tariff Plan, or for the entire term (period) of the exclusive (property) right. The Licensee has the right to install 1 (one) copy of the Program on a computer device, unless otherwise specified by the selected Tariff Plan. Each additional workstation is installed on a separate desktop computer, and the purchase of new versions of the Program or an increase in the number of workstations is paid for separately on the basis of the Tariff Plans in effect with the Licensor at the time of payment.

2.4. The Licensee gets acquainted with the general and technical description of the Program (Plugins) on the Site in the "Help" section, selects the version, configuration, package of the Program, the number of its copies (instances) and connected workstations, as well as the license term using the functionality of the Site, which is recorded by means of the executed Order, which is an integral part of the Agreement.

2.5. The Program is supplied to the Licensee on an "as is" basis, with the same functional properties and in the state in which it exists at the time of purchasing the license, and the Licensor does not guarantee the Licensee the implementation of its proposals for improving (updating) the Program. The Licensee configures the purchased Program for use by default independently, at the same time, the Licensee has the right to receive technical support from the Licensor.

2.6. The right to use the Program is transferred automatically, remote access to the Program is considered provided to the Licensee from the moment of payment for the Tariff Plan. If after the expiration of 10 (ten) calendar days from this day the Licensee does not receive any reasoned claims regarding improper provision of access or the right to use the Program, the Licensor is considered to have fulfilled its obligations to provide access and the right to use the Program properly.

2.7. As a general rule, the Parties do not sign an Acceptance Certificate for the right to use the software (hereinafter referred to as the "Acceptance Certificate") or any other closing document, except in cases where one of the Parties has requested this within 10 calendar days from the date of granting the Licensee the right to use the Program. In such a case, remote access to the Program is considered to be granted to the Licensee from the date specified in the Acceptance Certificate.

2.8. The Licensor undertakes to send the Acceptance Certificate to the Licensee for signing on the day of granting access to the Program or upon receipt of the Licensee's request to sign it, if these are different days. The Licensee is obliged to sign the Acceptance Certificate within 2 (two) calendar days from the moment of its receipt or to state his reasoned objections to signing.

2.9. In the event of unjustified inaction on the part of the Licensee in signing the Acceptance Certificate, it shall be considered signed by the Licensee without comments, and the right to use the Program shall be considered duly granted and accepted by the Licensee without claims, on the day following the expiration of the 2-day period established for its signing.

3. LICENSE FEE

3.1. The license fee shall be paid in rubles of the Russian Federation or in foreign currency as agreed with the Licensor, depending on the location of the Licensee and the payment method chosen by it.

3.2. The Licensee undertakes to make a full advance payment of the license fee in the amount established by the Tariff Plan chosen by it at the price indicated on the Site at the time of purchasing the license. The Licensee's obligation to pay the license fee shall be deemed to have been duly fulfilled at the time the funds are credited to the Licensor's bank account.

3.3. The license fee shall be paid by the Licensee using the payment module connected to the Site, by making a non-cash payment by bank card, or by payment orders to a bank account, based on an invoice issued for payment, is not subject to VAT and does not include commissions, exchange rate differences and other payments that may be charged by third parties for the Licensee's payment to the Licensor.

3.4. The following bank cards are accepted for payment using the payment module: VISA, MasterCard, Maestro, MIR. Payment processing occurs on the bank's authorization page, where the Licensee must enter their bank card details in a special payment form (card number, card expiration date, security code (CVC2/CVV2)). The Licensee is personally responsible for the accuracy of the entered payment details and the correctness of the payments made.

3.5. If the Licensee's bank card is connected to the 3D-Secure service, the Licensee will be automatically redirected to the issuing bank's page in order to undergo the authentication procedure in accordance with the rules and methods of the issuing bank. If the payment details entered by the Licensee are correct and valid, and the use of the bank card is recognized as technically possible, a non-cash debit of funds occurs.

3.6. The Licensor's obligations to provide access to the Program are generally considered fulfilled from the moment the Licensee pays the (license) fee, provided that the fact of payment is reflected in the Licensor's electronic payment accounting system, regardless of whether the Licensee requested execution during the term of the Tariff Plan, and regardless of the actual quantity and volume of use by the Licensee of the rights of claim provided under the Tariff Plan.

3.7. The Licensor does not control the hardware and software complex of the payment module and is not responsible for errors in payment processing (refusal to accept payment, lack of crediting, double withholding of funds, etc.), such responsibility lies with the issuing bank and the payment module. At the same time, the Licensor assists the Licensee in resolving any disputes that arise within the capabilities available to it.

3.8. The Licensor has the right to unilaterally change the amount of the license fee by publishing the said changes on the Site, and the Licensee unconditionally agrees that the Licensor is not obliged to inform it of each change in the amount of the license fee.

3.9. The Licensor has the right to offer other methods of payment for the cost of the Tariff Plan at its own discretion.

3.10. When paying for the cost of the Tariff Plan with a bank card, the Licensee is obliged to use his own bank card. If a third party makes the payment on its behalf, in order to avoid disputes, the full name or title of the person on whose behalf the payment is made must be indicated in the payment purpose. In the event of failure to fulfill this obligation, the Licensor has the right to request a check or other payment document from the Licensee in order to confirm the payment.

3.11. The Licensor may provide the Licensee with discounts, bonuses, promotional offers, a trial (free) period of access and other preferential terms for using the Program. Offers within the framework of preferential terms of access to the Program may be limited by the established terms of their validity, of which the Licensee is informed via the Site or other means for exchanging legally significant messages.

4. REGISTRATION ON THE SITE

4.1. Registration on the Site allows the Licensee to place an Order, gain access to the Program and technical support. If the Licensee decides to register an Account, he must enter the relevant data in a special form on the Site, create a Login and Password, and confirm the registration by activating the button. After completing the specified actions, the Licensee is considered to have successfully completed the registration procedure, and is granted access to the Personal Account.

4.2. Each subsequent access of the Licensee to the Account is carried out through his Authentication and Authorization.

4.3. The Licensee is responsible for the safety of his Login and Password, and has no right to transfer this data to third parties. It is assumed that any actions performed by the Licensee using the Login and Password are performed on his behalf and in his interests. In the event of unauthorized activity of third parties in relation to the Account, or a suspicion of a compromise of his Login and Password, the Licensee is obliged to notify the Licensor about this at the earliest opportunity.

4.4. The Licensor shall not be liable for the accuracy of the information provided by the Licensee.

5. LIABILITY OF THE PARTIES

5.1. In case of violation of obligations arising from the Agreement, the guilty Party shall bear liability provided for by the Agreement and applicable law. Violation of the terms of the Agreement is non-fulfillment or improper fulfillment of the obligations assumed under the Agreement, i.e. fulfillment of obligations in violation of the conditions stipulated by the content of the Agreement.

5.2. The Licensor shall not be liable for the discrepancy between the Program and the Licensee's expectations, or for his subjective negative assessment. Such discrepancy or subjective negative assessment of the Program may under no circumstances be grounds for considering the Licensor's provision of access to the Program and the right to use it to be improper.

5.3. The Licensor shall not be liable for adverse consequences that occurred for the Licensee in connection with the provision of inaccurate, insufficient information to the Licensor or its untimely provision, as well as for technical problems that arose due to the fault of third parties.

5.4. The Licensor does not undertake any obligations to provide the Licensee with software and hardware capabilities for using the Program. If the Licensee's device does not allow him to use the Program in full or in part, the Licensor does not bear any obligations to reimburse the Licensee for the (license) fee for using the Program.

5.5. The Licensee is prohibited from:

5.5.1. providing the Licensor with false information about themselves or personal data and other confidential information of third parties without their consent, executed in the manner prescribed by law;

5.5.2. impersonating another person or providing false (fake) documents;

5.5.3. transferring access rights to the Program, Account or software associated with the Program for use by third parties, including through sale, lease, exchange or free use;

5.5.4. creating conditions for the use of the Program by persons who do not have the right to use it, including those working in the same network or multi-user system with the Licensee;

5.5.5. disassembling, decompiling (converting object code into source text) the Program, databases and other components of the Program, except for cases when the possibility of performing such actions is expressly provided for by the Agreement;

5.5.6. modify the Program, including making changes to the object code of the Program or its databases, with the exception of those changes that are made by means included in the Program package and described in the operating documentation;

5.5.7. take software and hardware actions that may be considered as obviously disrupting the normal operation and functioning of the Program and other infrastructure owned by the Licensor;

5.5.8. use any devices, programs, procedures, algorithms and methods, automatic devices or equivalent manual processes to access, acquire, copy or track the content of the Site or the Program, as well as other infrastructure owned by the Licensor;

5.5.9. bypass the navigation structure of the Site or the Program, or otherwise provide unauthorized access to its functions for the purpose of obtaining information, documents, materials or access to closed sections of the Site or the Program that are lawfully inaccessible to the Licensee;

5.5.10. violate the security system of the Site or the Program;

5.5.11. use the Program in any other way that is not expressly permitted by the Agreement.

5.6. The Licensor shall not be liable for any damages arising from the use or inability to use the Program. The Licensor's property liability in any case may not exceed the amount paid by the Licensee for the Program.

5.7. The Licensee's violation of the Licensor's exclusive right entails its liability and the right to terminate the Agreement early. In the event of a violation by the Licensee of the copyright's property or non-property rights to the Program, the Licensor, along with the use of other applicable methods of protection and liability measures, has the right to demand from the Licensee, at its discretion, instead of compensation for damages, payment of compensation for each fact of the violation committed.

5.8. The Parties shall be released from liability for full or partial failure to fulfill the obligations assumed under the Agreement if the failure to fulfill or improper fulfillment of such obligations was a consequence of force majeure, namely: fire, natural disasters, strike, war, mass riots, major accidents, man-made disasters, worsening of the epidemiological situation (pandemic), prohibitive actions of government authorities, international sanctions, Internet failures or other circumstances beyond the control of the Parties that arose after the conclusion of the Agreement.

5.9. The Party that cannot fulfill its obligations under the Agreement due to force majeure shall, at the first opportunity, but no later than 10 (ten) calendar days after the occurrence of force majeure, notify the other Party in writing, with the presentation of documents confirming such circumstances issued by the competent authorities. If the force majeure lasts for more than 30 (thirty) calendar days, either Party may initiate termination of the Agreement.

5.10. The Party that received the claim is obliged to consider it on the merits and provide a reasoned response within 10 (ten) calendar days from the date of receipt. Based on the results of the claim review, the Party that received the claim shall make one of the following decisions: 1) satisfy the demands of the other Party and provide actual fulfillment of the stated demands (elimination of the violation); 2) refuse to satisfy the demands of the other Party with a justification for its decision.

6. RETURN POLICY

6.1. The Licensee shall pay the cost of the Tariff Plan for the right to use the Program on demand. Failure to use or termination of use of the Program by the Licensee shall not in itself be grounds for the Licensor to return the funds paid as a license fee, except in cases where the return was requested before access to the Program was provided, or if the Licensor prevents the Licensee from fully using the Program.

6.2. In the event of a unilateral refusal to fulfill the Agreement, the Licensee (an individual) shall have the right to demand a refund of the amounts paid for the period of the Tariff Plan for which the Agreement was terminated early, except in cases where the license for the Program was acquired for the entire term (period) of the exclusive (property) right. In this case, the calculation of the amount of money subject to return to the Licensee in connection with his refusal from the Agreement is made by the Licensor based on the remaining full (not yet arrived) periods of the Tariff Plan, except for cases when the license for the Program is acquired for the entire term (period) of the exclusive (property) right and is not subject to return in the event of proper fulfillment by the Licensor of its obligations.

6.3. The return of the license fee (full or partial, depending on the decision made in the manner established by the Agreement) is made by the Licensor on the basis of the Licensee's application, executed in the form of an electronic document sent to his e-mail address. The application for a refund of funds must contain the applicant's data in a volume sufficient to identify the order for the purchase of the Tariff Plan, specific requirements, and other information on the essence of the appeal.

6.4. The Licensor shall consider the Licensee's application for a refund within a period of no more than 10 (ten) calendar days from the date of its receipt, and shall make one of the following decisions: 1) satisfy the requirements and refund the funds to the Licensee in full or in part; 2) refuse to satisfy the requirements and justify the reasons for its refusal.

6.5. If the application is satisfied, a full or partial refund of funds (depending on the decision made) shall be made by the Licensor no later than 10 (ten) calendar days from the date of receipt of the application for a refund. The refund period does not include the operational time of the bank and the payment module, which is actually required to carry out the operation to refund funds.

7.1. The Licensor is the legal owner of the Program. All copyrighted objects available on the Site, including design elements, text, graphic images, illustrations, videos, computer programs, databases, audiovisual works and other objects posted on the Site, or to which the Licensee is provided access when using the Program, are objects of intellectual property rights of the Licensor and other copyright holders.

The Licensor does not alienate the exclusive (property) right to the copyrighted objects belonging to it to the Licensee, and the Licensee is obliged to refrain from actions that violate or may violate the exclusive (property) right of the Licensor, as well as to immediately report any facts of violations by third parties that become known to it.

8.3. The day of receipt of documents and legally significant messages by the addressee is the day of their sending (electronic document flow), the day of actual delivery, or the next day after the expiration of the storage periods for the item at the place of its issue (written document flow). The Parties undertake to maintain confidentiality of access to their means of communication and to immediately notify each other of all cases of their compromise or the impossibility of opening received messages, otherwise such messages are considered proper and received.

9. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA
